

2019 U.S. PERSONAL TAX CHECKLIST

WHO NEEDS TO FILE U.S. RETURNS?

U.S. citizens, green card holders, Canadian residents engaged in U.S. trade or business, or representative of U.S. estate or trust.

FILING DEADLINES

1. 2019 1040 or 1040NR personal tax return, with U.S. wages or salary - April 15, 2020
2. 2019 1040 or 1040NR personal tax return without U.S. wages & salary and residing outside U.S. – June 15, 2020 (but balances owing should be paid by April 15, 2020)
3. 2019 FBAR (FinCEN 114) filed electronically, formerly TD F 90-22.1, form to report foreign financial assets – April 15, 2020 (residing outside U.S., filing deadline is June 15, 2020)

Note: Filing extensions for 1040 and 1040NR personal returns can be prepared upon request and must be submitted before the deadlines above.

REQUIRED INFORMATION

All Filers:

- Social Security Number or taxpayer ID number
- US tax slips (Form W-2, Form 1099, Form 1042S, etc)
- 2019 Canadian personal income tax return if not prepared by Ernst & Company CPA.
- 2018 U.S. tax return if not prepared by Ernst and Company CPA, including unused foreign tax credits carried forward and unclaimed capital losses carried forward

1040 Filers:

- Mortgage interest and property tax paid during 2019
- Activity statements of TFSA and RESP for 2019
- Financial information regarding Canadian and other non-US cash accounts and registered and non-registered investments to prepare additional foreign asset information returns held both individually and jointly, including joint holder information, if applicable
- 2019 statement for any Canadian mutual funds held outside of registered accounts for PFIC reporting.

1040NR Filers:

- Days spent in the U.S. during 2017, 2018 and 2019
- If first time filer, provide completed W-7 form including certified copy of passport to request US identification number